The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Gordon:

Thank you for your note of October 18 enclosing the letter from Alfred Neal concerning the forthcoming semi-annual meeting of the trustees of the Committee for Economic Development on November 17th at the Shoreham Hotel.

This should be a very interesting and informative meeting indeed, and I regret to find that I am unable to attend. However, if possible, I should very much like to have Dr. [ ] attend in my stead. Dr. [ ] is Chief of our Economic Research here, is very knowledgeable on Soviet economic matters and has read carefully the various reports thus far written by the six American economic experts who will be participating in this discussion. If you see no objection, will you please put Dr. [ ] name on the list of those to be present.

Faithfully yours,
